

2020 St. Nicholas Academic Scholarship Application

St. Luke Greek Orthodox Church is excited to announce the 2020 St. Nicholas Academic Scholarship (SNAS).

The scholarship has been approved by the St. Luke Parish Council and will be funded from proceeds of the sale of the St Nicholas property.

Qualified candidates can apply to receive one (1) $1,000 scholarship for use toward tuition at any level of higher education.

The SNAS will be offered once in each calendar year.

The SNAS is available to anyone of any age pursuing higher education including college, graduate school and trade school.

Applicants must have average GPA of 3.0 or higher throughout high school (or college for those pursuing graduate studies)

Signed and sealed academic transcripts from high school (or college for those pursuing graduate studies) must be delivered directly by your school by mail to St. Luke Greek Orthodox Church at the address below by May 1, 2020.

Applicants (individual or through their family) must be a member in good standing at St. Luke.

Recipients may reapply in future years.

The scholarship payment is unrestricted in its end use.

Completed applications are due by May 1, 2020 and should be mailed to:
